PISCATAWAY SCHEDULES RIBBON-CUTTING AT STREET SCAPE IMPROVEMENT PROJECT

Saturday, May 17, 2008

On Saturday, May 17th, 2008 Piscataway has scheduled a ribbon-cutting and dedication of the Johanna W. Westergard Public Library parking lot which is a part of the Stelton Road Street Scape Improvement Project and includes the new clock tower. The ceremony will take place directly in front of the Westergard Library on Stelton Road.

The festivities, beginning at 10:30 a.m. will include entertainment. The Library invites children to join in the celebration by creating their own clock at the event.

For information, call the Mayor's office, 732-562-2301. The public is invited.
